

WILL FINANCE CHAIRS ON SUBJECT IN HOWARD, ATLANTA AND ONE OTHER SCHOOL: ADOPT OFFICIAL ORGAN.

H. E. Perry lives and moves in Atlanta. The public should know more about Mr. Perry. Calling him a financial genius is repetition; he has been called that many times before. He is masterful, and he has accomplished wonderful things in a financial way. In one section of the city there are fifty beautiful dwellings in process of construction, being erected by the Service Corporation; these will be occupied by homes by Colored people. The Service Corporation was organized by Mr. Perry.

The officers of the Association are: C. C. Spaulding, North Carolina; M. C. Durham, N. C.; President: W. S. Moraby, Health and Life Insurance Company, Savannah, Ga. Vice President: Dr. J. E. Walker, of the same company, Columbia, S. C.; Secretary: J. E. Conn, second Vice President; J. B. Good, third Vice President; J. E. Walker, fourth Vice President; R. W. Chambers, fifth Vice President; D. F. Afro-American, Jacksonville, Fla. fifth Vice Pres.; J. S. Allen, Great Southern Life, Atlanta, Ga.; sixth Vice President; M. S. Stuart, Mississippi Life, Memphis, Tenn.; Secretary: J. A. Swayze, Mississippi Life, Little Rock, Ark.; Treasurer: J. E. Perry, Standard Life, Atlanta, Ga. Treasurer.

Executive Committee.
H. T. Singleton, Georgia Mutual,
Augusta, Ga.; J. C. Johnson, Pilgrim
Health and Life, Augusta, Ga.; H.
Strawbridge, Union Central Relief,
Birmingham, Ala.; H. E. Hall, Mammoth Life and Accident, Louisville, Ky.; B. T. Hollis, Standard Life, Atlanta, Ga.

TORY.

Nashville, Tenn. Sept. 28.—The signs are plenty that the 1878 conference will be a big success. Inquiries from all over the country are being received, and it is a safe thing to say that the first week in October in this city will be a big success. Inquiries from all over the country are being received, and it is a safe thing to say that the first week in October in this city will be a big success. Inquiries from all over the country are being received, and it is a safe thing to say that the first week in October in this city will be a big success.

write at once to Dr. J. N. C. Cogswell, Conference Headquarters, 1000 Commercial Building, Nashville, Tenn., giving name and address of himself (or herself) and name and address of any dependent member of his or her family who is desirous of attending the Temperance Public Morals and Law Enforcement Conference (Interdenominational-Colored) to be held at Nashville, Tennessee, October 1-5, 1934. A certificate of attendance in this identification certificate is sent from the headquarters (Conference Y. M. C. A., Nashville, Tenn.) and used by each delegate in purchasing his or her railroad ticket and the returning party may combine with the Convention) the special reduced round trip railroad rates with These special reduced railroad rates have been authorized on practically all lines throughout the country, including the Southeastern, Southwestern, Western, Central, New England and Trunk Line Passenger Associations (excepting those stations on New Orleans Great Northern Railroad).

The fare for round trip tickets on all railroads is one and one-half fare (from starting point to Nashville and return). Tickets on sale from September 29 to October 15 (that is, delegates must leave Nashville after the convention in time to return home delegates must leave Nashville after the convention in time to return home by midnight of October 13th).

clerk tickets will be placed on sale from September 25 to October 5, inclusive, with final return limit of October 13, 1922. In the case of Oklahoma, tickets will be placed on sale from September 25 to October 5, inclusive, with final return limit of October 14.

Western Passenger Association, sale from September 25 to October 5, inclusive, with final limit of October 13, 1922, from Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Texas, Colorado, September 25 to October 5, inclusive, with final return limit of October 14, 1922, from Colorado (except Julesburg), Idaho, Montana, Nevada, and Wyoming.

The local committee at Nashville have made arrangements to care for the delegates attending the Law Enforcement Conference at the rate of $1.50 per day for each delegate.

Clarewood Tells His Wife.

IF YOU ARE NOT READING

"UNTO THE FOURTH GENERATION?"

FOURTH GENERATION

YOU ARE MISSING A THRILL OF A LIFE TIME.

(See Story on page 41.)